

Book Report Template – Make changes to fit your book AND remove underlines.

Book Title, by (author) _____ is a _____ book about (one - two sentence summary of book) _____. The story takes place in _____ (give the setting – place and time if applicable) _____. The main characters are _____ (give the names of characters and how they are connected). The story begins when _____ _____. Most of the action takes place during _____. The turning point in the story is when _____. By the end of the story _____
_____.

When thinking about the significance of American individualism in American literature, Book Title reminded me of _____ because of _____ _____ and _____. At one point, _____ is described as, “ _____ ” (page number). When I read the part about _____, I saw a connection with _____ and _____ _____. When I think about how “ _____ ” (page number) happens in this book, I am also reminded of _____.

Because my book was about _____, I could not see a connection between it and _____. Also, the ending of my book seemed to emphasize the theme that _____, especially when they talk about, “ _____ ” (page number). So far, none of our stories have covered this theme.

Work Cited

Author Last Name, First Name. Book Title. Publisher, copyright year.